

Send Funeral Notice

Mrs Emily Stuart Maurice

The funeral of Mrs Emily Stuart Maurice, mother of Mr Algernon Maurice, only surviving son, of Pultney House, Putlney Road, Bath, was the younger of the two daughters of the late Admiral John Montagu, of Seend Manor, Wilts, and widow of the late Col Arthur Corbet Maurice, of the Royal Munster Fusiliers, who died on December 17, aged 91 years, took place at St Mary's, Bathwick, on Saturday.

Preb George Ruck, who conducted the service was assisted by Father W Goddard and Father Bernard Cooper, Vicar of St John's Bathwick. The music played by Mr R J Malen, organist and choirmaster of St Mary's, Bathwick, was selected from works composed by Mr Algernon Maurice, entitled "Cradle Song" and "Chorale".

The chief mourners were: Mr Algernon Maurice (son), and the Misses Wallington, late of Keevil Manor (friends). Mrs Phyllis Topham, Mr James Montagu (cousin), Mr George Montagu (cousin), were unable to attend. Other relatives, all of whom are in New Zealand are Mrs Arthur Maurice (sister-in-law), Mr Harold Maurice (nephew), Mr Philip Maurice (nephew), Mr Beauclerk Maurice (nephew). Mrs Matthew Durrant (niece). Amongst those present at the church were: Miss H Berry, Mrs J E Brown, Mr H Dyte, Miss E S Gale, Miss B Dawson, Mrs F Clare, Miss Pratt-Barlow, Miss G Gates, Mrs Wharton Coward, Misses E and A Awdry, Miss D Smith, Miss M E James, Mrs Lacon, Misses Sutton, Mrs Thompson, Miss Bodey. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Hanks and Whiting of 17 Bathwick Street, Bath.

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Saturday 28 December 1940