

Seend
Funeral Notice
1855

the church, also in the church also showed their respect for Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette

Died at Seend on Thursday last, at the advanced age of 77 years, Mr Thomas Shell; who for nearly the whole of his long life had been a singer at Seend church. His surviving brothers of the choir, therefore, paid respect to his memory by attending the funeral, and singing appropriate hymns from his house to and at the grave. The ringers him by ringing a muffled peal.
Thursday 8 November 1855

