

Bravery Award

On Thursday at Seend, near Devizes, the Vicar (the Rev Canon Thynne) presented the vellum certificate of the Royal Humane Society to Robert Mundy, a lad aged 11 years, who rescued a little girl from drowning in the Kennett and Avon Canal on July 23rd last. This was the second occasion on which the youth has been successful in saving life.

Western Daily Press Friday 31 October 1902