

CORONERS INQUESTS

Inquest

While in the act of filling a bucket with water from the river near his house, Baldham Mill, Seend on Sunday morning Thomas Weeks Butcher (43), farmer and miller, fell into the water and was drowned.

At the inquest held at Balham Mill on Monday, a verdict of "Accidental drowning" was returned.

Western Daily Press Tuesday 10 March 1931