Joseph Knee -

Christmas Man

There is at present residing in the village of St Mary Cray a man named Joseph Knee, who was born on Christmas Day 1758, christened on Christmas Day 1759, and married on Christmas Day 1782. This centenarian is a farm labourer. His wife lived with him 50 years, and he had three sons and four daughters, of whom three of the latter are only now living. He was born in the parish of Seend, in Wilts, and came to St Mary at the age of 90 to reside with his son-in-law.
