

Coronation of George V

Major Justly William Awdry

Major Justly William Awdry, who attends the King's Levee on Monday as one of the original Wiltshire Volunteers, was born in ??? and it is doubtful whether anyone of so great an age had previously appeared at Court in St James' Palace. Major Awdry is one of the Awdrys of Seend, as distinct from the Notton and Shaw Hill branch of the same family, and the fourth son of Mr William Henry Awdry of Chippenham who died in 1847 and a brother of the late Mr West Awdry of Monkton.
