

Poulton Parish Church

Marriage of James Mayell & Miss Gladys Redwood

The wedding took place yesterday at the parish church, Poulton, of Mr James Stanley Mayell, third son of Mr and Mrs Thomas Mayell, of Seend, Wilts, and Miss Gladys May Redwood, the second daughter of Mr and Mrs C H Redwood of Hillside, Poulton.

The Rev H T Fitzpatrick (vicar of High Littleton) officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of beige georgette, with shoes, stockings and hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of red and pink carnations. She was attended, as bridesmaids, by Miss Winifred G Redwood (sister of bride) and Miss Violet Mayell (sister of bridegroom), who wore powder blue dresses with black crinoline hats and carried bouquets of sweet peas. Mr Herbert Mayell (brother of bridegroom) was best man. Mr Tom Watts was at the organ.

At a reception at Hillside, about 60 guests were present, and later the newly wedded pair left for the honeymoon at Bournemouth.

Western Daily Press Thursday 6 August 1931