

Shrewton
1900-1999

1909

On Sunday a pretty wedding was solemnised at the Wesleyan Church, Southsea, when Miss L. A. Jeffery, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Jeffery, of Shrewton, was married to Mr. J. E. Langford, of Kingston, Portsmouth. The bride was attended by her two sisters as bridesmaids - the Misses Mary and Emily Jeffery. The Rev. Mr. Jolliffe officiated. Numerous handsome presents were received.

Salisbury Times, Friday, 1 January 1909

1938

The Engagement is announced between Driver W. J. Robinson, Royal Artillery, stationed at Shrewton, eldest son of Mr. J. Robinson, of London and Miss "Betty" Vallis, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Vallis, of Corton Down Farm, near Codford. Boyton

Western Gazette, 2 September 1938