

*Stanton
Fitzwarren
1800-1899*

1831

April 18 1831 At Stanton, the Rev Edward Rowden, Vicar of Highworth, Wilts to Ellen Frances, eldest daughter of the Rev. Dr. Ashfordby Trenchard, of Stanton House. Gentleman's Magazine, April 183, Page 635

1838

March 10. Aged 66, the Rev John Ashfordby Trenchard DCL of Stanton House, Wilts and Rector of Stanton Fitzwarren. He was born at Chestnut, the son of John Ashfordby, of Stanton Fitzwarren Esq and assumed the name of Trenchard after his own. He was admitted a Commoner of Trinity College, Oxford in 1789 and graduated B and DCL 1802. He was instituted to Stanton on his own petition in 1822. The Gentleman's Magazine, Volume 163 Page 664

1860

March 3rd, at Stanton Fitzwarren, near Highworth, the wife of Mr. Henry Reynolds - a son. Swindon Evening Advertiser, 5 March 1860

1866

Sept 11, at St Mark's Church, Notting Hill, John Ford, eldest son of John Ford Sevier, Esq. of Maisemore Lodge, Gloucestershire, to Frances, third daughter of the late Rev. John Ashfordby Trenchard of Stanton Fitzwarren, Highworth, Wilts. and Nyn Park, Hertfordshire. John Bull, Saturday, 15 September 1866, Page 626

1867

On the 11th inst at All Saints, Margaret Street, Cavendish Square, by the Rev. Granville Granville, cousin of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Upton Richards, incumbent, John Ashfordby Trenchard, Esq. of Stanton Fitzwarren, Wilts. and of Nyn Park, Hertfordshire, to Augusta S. M. A., only child of the Rev. H. R. Fowler of Filton, Gloucestershire. The Morning Post, Monday, 15 July 1867, Page 7

1899

October 11, at Bath, aged 53, Emma, daughter of the late Rev. John Trenchard Craven Ashfordby Trenchard, of Stanton Fitzwarren. The Bristol Mercury and Daily Post, Saturday, 21 October 1899