Stanton Fitzwarren

This village is situated five miles from Swindon, and two-and-a-half miles from Highworth, which is the nearest Money Order Office. The Church of St. Leonard is a handsome building. In the interior is an arch of beautiful design and perfect Norman piscine, and a memorial window to the late Dr. Trenchard. There is also a fine organ. The living, a rectory of the annual value of £300, with residence, is in gift of Mr. John Ashfordby Trenchard, Lord of the Manor and principal landowner, and held by the Rev. William Caldwell Masters, M.A. of Magdalen College, Oxford. Area, 1,391 acres. Population, in 1881, 191; in 1871, 184, being an increase of eight.
