

Staverton St. Paul's Churchyard

The date of the first churchyard in Staverton is unknown but a church almost certainly existed on the site from the 13th century. The first known documented reference to a church here was in 1535 when St. Paul's was described as a "Chapel of Ease" in the Valdr Ecclesiatus. The church was completely re-built in 1826 and Staverton became a separate parish in 1839. The Village enjoyed its own recent Vicars from 1844 to 1971. The churchyard was enlarged in 1906 with the acquisition of land to the NE of the Church. Many of the earlier graves are now unidentifiable and many have been covered over. The oldest known tombstone is dated 1718.

This document only covers the East and north-east area of the churchyard, and is based on the revised plan of February 2000, found at the end of this document.

HISTORICAL NOTES: THE DATE OF THE FIRST CHURCHYARD IN STAVERTON IS UNKNOWN BUT A CHURCH PLUMET CERTAINLY EXISTED ON THE SITE FROM THE 13TH CENTURY. THE FIRST KNOWN DOCUMENTED REFERENCE TO A CHURCH HERE WAS IN 1585 WHEN ST. PAUL'S WAS DESTROYED AS 'CHAPEL OF EASE' IN THE VALE OF BRISTOLSHIRE.
