

Parish News Steeple Ashton

1826

A 2 year old sow, lately fatted by Mr ADAMS of Steeple Ashton, measured from the top of his nose to the extremity of the tail 8 feet, the bladder distended 3 feet in circumference and it's weight was 30 score and 14 lbs. Royal Cornwall Gazette, Jan 21 1826.

1828

There are now lying dead in the village of Steeple Ashton four old women, whose united ages amount to 340. As a proof of the salubrity of the air, the Parish register often exhibits frequent instances of persons dying upwards of 90 years of age. The Morning Post. Dec 8 1828
