

Patents and Their Inventors

A patent is an official document given to an inventor by a government. This document generally gives inventors the right to stop anyone else from copying, using, distributing or selling the invention without their permission.

Year	Date	Surname	Given Names	Abode	Occupation	Description of Invention and Notes
1847	01-Dec	Chandler	Thomas	Stockton	Yeoman	Liquid manure drill. This was spoken very well of by Mr. Philip Pusey, M.P., who drew up the report on agricultural implements at the Exhibition of 1851.
