

CORONERS INQUESTS

Stratford-sub-Castle 1800-1899

1828

Mr. Whitmarsh held an inquest on Friday at Stratford-sub-Castle, on the body of Joseph Fernel: the deceased was at work in undermining a well, when the wall suddenly fell and killed him on the spot. Verdict, "Accidentally killed."

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 21 April 1828