

Accident Reports

Stratton - Kingswood
1800-1899

1839

On Wednesday last a man in employ of Mr. Archer, of Kingsdown, in the parish of Stratton St. Margaret, narrowly escaped a serious, if not fatal injury. Whilst assisting with the thrashing-machine, his clothes became entangled amongst the cogs of the machinery, but he was fortunately rescued from his perilous situation without receiving any important hurt. Wiltshire Independent, 10 January 1839.