

The Pub Sign of Jacobs Ladder

Stratton St. Margaret, near Swindon, Wilts.

To be SOLD by PRIVATE CONTRACT,

A well accustomed FREEHOLD PUBLIC HOUSE, known by the sign of Jacob's Ladder; consisting of a good dwelling-house; out-house, stable, and garden, with an inclosed piece of very rich pasture, containing by estimation one acre and a half (more or less) situate at Stratton St. Margaret afore-said, the same being in the occupation of Mr. Hyde, under a lease which will expire at Lady-Day next.

For further particulars apply to Mr. J. Callaway, at Hursley, near Winchester; or to Mr. Henry Dolling, at Durrington, near Amesbury, Wilts.

N. B. If by letter, the postage must be paid.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal, Monday, 25 June 1804