Arrests after assaults -

Two men were taken to hospital after what police described as linked assaults in the Upper Stratton area on Friday night.

More than a dozen police units were seen outside the Premier store on Whitworth Road at around 6 am on Saturday. A police cordon remained in place during the morning, with forensic officers seen at the scene. Chunks of brick could be seen behind police tapes in the alleyway alongside the Premier shop. Two injured men were both arrested, Police say they were not looking for any other suspects in connection with the assaults. A spokesman for Wiltshire Police said: "Both of the arrested men have been taken to hospital. Neither has life threatening injuries." In a statement, issued on Saturday, the force added: "There are a number of scenes in place regarding this incident and we would like to thank the public for their patience whilst our enquiries continue. We are not looking for any-one else in relation to these incidents at this time."
