

Gas Works

Built in 1891 in Gypsy Lane, closed and demolished in 1968 due to introduction of North Sea Gas. The Gas holders remained until 2006.

British Gas built a new headquarters here in 1970's, this became a service depot in 1980's.

A workers club was built across the road and a refurbished club still stands there today.