

L-Corpl. Beames. P.O. Selby.

Local Heroes

Two portraits of local interest are printed here today. One is that of Lance Corporal Frederick William Beames, Royal Engineers, now officially presumed to have lost his life in action on the S. S. Lancastria. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Beames, 36 Albion Street, Swindon. 33 years of age and unmarried.

The other picture is that of Petty Officer Frank G. Selby, of 164 Swindon Road, Stratton, who has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for his work in the submarine service, which also gained him promotion to his present rank. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Selby, and is 21 years of age.
