

Shepherd and Dogs

Missing Child

Last week, a servant to a respectable farmer at Stratton, went to Swindon in the afternoon, with the farmer's 12 year old daughter. On leaving a shop she realised the child had gone and being unable to find her went home. The parents, and a number of men started a search but couldn't find her. The following day they found out a shepherd had found her on Rockley Down. It was good that the shepherd had found her as the area was very open and the weather bad and not good for a young child.

Devizes & Wiltshire Gazette, 10 January 1850