

Penhill Public Houses and Clubs

The Deer's Leap, 141 Penhill Drive

Built in late 1950's. In 1960's ran a music club - initiated by local musician, Henry Francombe, and often with Dennis Hunt or Paul McGuire at the piano. Guest stars included Tubby Hayes, Don Rendell, Graham Bond, and Bill le Sage.

Landlords

License Held	Surname	Given Names	Title
	Hoyland	Alex & Betty
1961	Edwards	Robert

Penhill British Legion

The branch was opened in 1967 and closed in 2010 after falling into debt. A fire caused severe damage to the derelict building in February 2012, now demolished and replaced with housing.