

BOROUGH PETTY SESSIONS, MONDAY

Before Mr A. Haynes (in the chair), Mr C. Hill, and Mr J. Clark

William SHEPPARD, of 243 Cricklade Road, was summoned for disobeying a school attendance order, in respect of his child Cecil. – Mr Curtis, (attendance officer), said the lad was a truant and had a bad influence over other boys. His only chance of salvation was to send him away. – The father said the lad was beyond his control. He thought it would be in the boy's interests to have him sent to an industrial school. – The magistrates made an order for the lad to be sent the Formidable shore training ship until he was 16 years of age.

Faringdon Advertiser 4th July 1908