Sutton Benger

Estate Notice of Abel Ferris

The Personal Representatives of Jarvis Ferris, late of Sutton Benger in the county of Wilts, deceased, being intitled to a distributive share of the Estate and Effects of Abel Ferris, late of the parish of Bremhill in the said county, victualler, deceased, late brother of the said Jarvis;

Notice is hereby given, that on application by the said representatives to Mr John Hancock, or Mr B Gaby, attorney at law, Calne, Wilts, they may receive their respective share or shares of the said effects.

The said Jarvis Ferris removed from Sutton Benger about twenty years ago with a wife and two children to London, where he died; the relations of the family in the country not having heard from them for near ten years past, and not knowing what is become of them, a line of intelligence from any person, whereby the said representatives may be found, directed to Mr H Mr C as above, will be thankfully received.
