Sutton Mandeville

Sutton Mandeville is a parish, about 2 ½, miles from the Dinton and Tisbury stations on the Salisbury and Yeovil branch of the South Western railway, 11 miles south-by-west from Salisbury, 10 north-east from Shaftesbury, and 8 east from Wilton, in the Southern division of the county, Cawdon and Cadworth hundred and Tisbury petty sessional division, Tisbury union, Shaftesbury county court district, rural deanery of Chalke (Tisbury portion), archdeaconry of Sarum and diocese of Salisbury. The church of All Saints is an ancient structure of stone in the Norman style: the chancel was repaired in 1850, and the church itself was rebuilt with the exception of the tower in 1862, and now consists of chancel, nave and north transept, south porch, with a plain square western tower containing 3 bells: the back of the old oak pulpit, which has been preserved, has cut on it the initials of the churchwardens and its date (1631): the church will hold 150 persons: in the churchyard is a fine yew tree, planted 1765. The register dates from the year 1654. The living is a rectory, average tithe rent-charge £217, gross income £300, net £220, with 44 acres of glebe, in the gift of William Wyndham, esq. and held since 1840 by the Rev. John Wyndham, M.A. of Magdalen College, Oxford. There is a small sum yearly, being the interest of £76 invested in Consols, left in 1854 by the late Mrs Mary Bracher (formerly of this parish), for coals to be distributed to the needy poor. The greater part of the parish is the property of William Wyndham, esq., of Dinton House, who is lord of the manor. The soil varies very much, being partly chalk and partly greensand loam, and in one part stone brash and clay. The chief crops are wheat, beans, oats and barley. The area is 1,259 acres; rateable value, £2,090; the population in 1891 was 204.

Wall Letter Box, cleared at 6.30 p.m.; Sundays, 9 a.m. Letters through Salisbury to Fovant, arrive at 7.30. The nearest money order & telegraph offices are at Dinton.

National School (mixed), with residence for mistress, built in 1875, for 60 children; average attendance, 28; Miss Elizabeth Roper, mistress
