Sutton Mandeville

Sutton Mandeville is a parish, about 2 ½, miles from Dinton and 4 miles from Tisbury stations on the Salisbury and Yeovil branch of the Southern railway, 12 miles west from Salisbury, 10 north-east from Shaftesbury, and 9 west from Wilton: it is in the Salisbury division of the county, hundred of Cawden, petty sessional division of Tisbury and Mere, rural district of Mere and Tisbury, county court district of Shaftesbury, rural deanery of Chalke (Tisbury portion) and archdeaconry and diocese of Salisbury. The church of All Saints is an ancient edifice of stone in the Norman style, consisting of chancel, nave, north transept, south porch and a western tower containing 3 bells: the old oak pulpit has cut on it the date of 1631 and the initials of the churchwardens: the chancel was repaired in 1850, and the church was restored with the exception of the tower, in 1862, and will seat 150 persons: in the churchyard is a yew tree, planted 1780, under which rests an ancient stone carved with a representation of the Virgin Mary and Holy Child with adoring saints. The register dates from the year 1654. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £343, with 44 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of the Reformation Church Trust, and held since 1911 by the Rev. William Louis Walter M.A. of St. John's College, Cambridge. The interest of £76 invested in Consols, left in 1854 by the late Mrs Mary Bracher, is for coals, to be distributed to the needy poor. William Wyndham, esq. J. P. is lord of the manor. The land is mostly owned by the farmers. The soil varies very much, being partly chalk and partly greensand loam, and in one part stone brash and clay. The chief crops are wheat, beans, oats and barley. The area is 1,326 acres; the population in 1931 was 175.

Letters through Salisbury to Fovant, nearest M. O. & T. office.
