Sutton Mandeville

Sutton Mandeville is a township and parish 10 miles south-by west of Salisbury, and 10 north-east of Shaftesbury, in Tisbury Union, Cawden and Cadsworth Hundred, and Hindon division, South Wilts. There are 1,257 acres of corn and pasture land; the greater part of the parish is the property of William Wyndham, Esq., the lord of the manor, whose seat is at Dinton. The church is an ancient structure, consisting of a nave and chancel, with a plain square tower at the west, containing 3 bells. The living is a rectory, value £240, in the gift of William Wyndham, Esq.; the incumbent is the Rev. John Wyndham, M.A.

The population, in 1851, was 309.

LAGPOND is half a mile south-west; Benston, 1 mile north-west; Ipsel, 1 mile north-west; Sutton Row, three-quarters of a mile west.

Letters through Salisbury to Fovant. The nearest money order offices are at Salisbury and Shaftesbury.
