Sutton Mandeville

Sutton Mandeville is a township and parish lying near the Salisbury and Yeovil railway, about midway between the Dinton and Tisbury stations, 11 miles south-by west of Salisbury, 10 north-east of Shaftesbury, 8 from Wilton, and 7 from Hindon, in Tisbury union, diocese and archdeaconry of Salisbury, and deanery of Chalke, Cawden and Cadworth Hundred, and Hindon division, South Wilts. There are 1,257 acres of corn and pasture land; the greater part of the parish is the property of William Wyndham, Esq., the lord of the manor, whose seat is at Dinton.

The church of All Saints is an ancient structure, consisting of a nave and chancel, with a plain square tower at the west, containing 3 bells. The living is a rectory, value £310, in the gift of William Wyndham, Esq.; the incumbent is the Rev. John Wyndham, M.A. The register commences in 1654.

The population, in 1851, was 309.

Letters through Salisbury to Fovant. The nearest money order office is at Hindon.
