Sutton Mandeville

On Thursday, the 7th inst., a match of skittles was played at the Compass Inn, Chicksgrove, between four of Tisbury and four of Sutton Mandeville, which was easily won by the former, with nine pins to go down. The parties afterwards partook of an excellent dinner, served up in the landlord's (Mr Lever's) usual good style. After a pleasant evening, spent in the greatest harmony and conviviality, the company separated at a late hour, much delighted with the entertainment, which was greatly enlivened by the admirable songs sung by Messrs Stone and Scammell. – The return match will be played at the Cribbage Hut, Sutton Mandeville, on the 21st inst., when another pleasant afternoon is anticipated.
