HEROES OF THE GREAT WAR

JAGO – In loving memory of our dear brother and uncle, No. 8894, Driver A. L. Jago, who died of broncho pneumonia, on February 9th, 1919.

In my heart your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond, and true;
And there's not a day, dear Archie,
That I do not think of you.
Friends may think that I have forgotten
When at times they see me smile,
But they do not know the sorrow
Those smiles hide all the while.

– Inserted by his loving sister, brother-in-law and nieces, Port Augusta. Western Australian and Broken Hill papers please copy.

HEROES OF THE GREAT WAR

JAGO – In sad but loving memory of our dear son and brother, Archie Leonard, who died of illness, General Hospital, England, 9th February, 1919, after four years' service.

Three years have passed, my heart still sore,
As time goes on I miss you more;
But when my heart is breaking,
    I seem to hear him gently say,
    "Cheer up, mother dear
There comes a brighter day,
When God shall say "Thy work is done,
Come, meet your darling son."

– Inserted by his loving parents, brothers, and sisters. Western Australian and Broken Hill papers please copy.

JAGO – In loving memory of our dear brother and uncle, No. 8894, Driver Archie Leonard Jago, who died at the Australian General Hospital, of broncho pneumonia, on February 9, 1919.

Farewell my soldier brother, your time is past;
I loved you Archie, while time did last.
But now you lie in a soldier's grave,
A hero, bold, noble, and brave.
You left your home and country, dear.
Like a hero brave, with nought to fear,
But you will never come again,
To tell us tales of honor and fame,
Great is my sorrow, but God knows best;
He has taken my dear soldier brother home to rest.

– Inserted by his loving sister, brother-in-law and nieces, Port Augusta. Western Australian and Broken Hill papers please copy.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Driver Archibald Leonard Jago does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
