SEND-OFF TO PRIVATE A. E. CARSON

The officers and members of the Charters Towers branch of the Australian Meat Industry Employees' Union, met in the Union Hall, Mosman Street, on Thursday, 20th April, to bid farewell to another of their members, Private A. E. Carson, who has been accepted for service at the front.

The proceedings took the form of a smoke social, which was well attended.

After the usual toasts had been enthusiastically honoured, the President, Mr J. J. Wallace, proposed "Our Comrade," who, he said, was going to try and do his little bit for the Empire, of which they ought to all feel proud, and also of the comrades who had gone willingly to death if need be. Good luck, and a safe return was the wish of every member of the Union.

Mr R. J. St. Clair, Past President, and Mr J. Nankervis, Vice-President, also voiced the sentiments of the Union, and hoped that Comrade Carson would keep in touch with the Charters Towers branch even as the others, who were somewhere east of Suez, "where there ain't no ten commandments."

Various songs and recitations were contributed by Comrades J. Witherspoon, C. Bird, J. Gage, J. Soden, and the evergreen Geo. Murphy.

ON behalf of the officers and members Mr H. Bonnell, Past President, in a neat speech, then presented Comrade Carson with a wristlet watch, and said that as it ticked off the minutes and hours of the campaign he hoped it would always remind him of the comrades left behind. To always remember the fair name and fame of Australia, to respect the King's uniform and to play up and play the game. He wished him God speed and a safe return.

Comrade Carson feelingly responded, thanking the members for the token, which he would always treasure, and no matter how hard the going he would always try and uphold the name of Australia for honor's sake. He sincerely hoped that he would not be too late to participate in the task the Australians have in hand.

After a most enjoyable evening the function was brought to a close with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte Arthur Edward Carson does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
