IN MEMORIAM

Anzac Heroes

MYTTON. - On September 19, 1919, at Sutton Hospital, Sapper . E. J. Mytton (4110), 3rd Australian Tunn., of pleurisy.

Now he is sleeping his last long sleep,
 And his grave I may never see.
But some gentle hand in a distant land,
 May scatter some flowers for me,
Some tender heart may shed a tear,
 For the one in anguish sore,
For the life so fair that ended there.
 Away on the distant shore.

Inserted by Miss E. Ostle.

SOLDIERS and SAILORS

Our Boys at Home and Abroad

Died at Sutton Veny on September 19, Sapper E. J. Mytton. The sapper had seen 3 ½ years active service and for a period was blind subsequent to being gassed. He was awaiting to embark for home when he contracted pleurisy, the illness having a fatal termination. In pre-war days Sapper Mytton followed the occupation of miner and was well and popularly known on the Sandstone and Meekatharra districts.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Sapper Edward Mytton does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
