Newspaper Reports

ST. MARYS

Mr. Herbert Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Ryan, of Bailey Park, St. Marys, died of illness on the 6th Feb. at the 1st Australian Hospital, England, the cause of death being influenza. He was admitted to the hospital on January 30th, their being at the time some 400 men from his battalion ill with the same complaint. This young soldier left Australia on the 18th July last; he was ill on the voyage over, and was sent to the hospital directly he arrived in England. He was 23 years of age, and the deepest sympathy is felt for the bereaved relatives. Some three years ago this unfortunate family was burnt out at Bailey Park, losing practically everything.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte Herbert Ryan does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
