Private James Podmore was admitted in a serious condition to the Military Hospital at Sutton Veny, Wiltshire on 24th October, 1918 with Influenza.

Private James Podmore died at 17.15 hrs on 1st November, 1918 at the Military Hospital, Sutton Veny of Influenza and Pneumonia.

A death for James Podmore, aged 26, was registered in the December quarter, 1918 in the district of Warminster, Wiltshire.

The Red Cross Wounded & Missing File for Pte James Podmore is quite a large file, containing 49 pages. It contains a request from the Red Cross on behalf of the relatives to find out the fullest details regarding the wounds, death & burial. Another letter in the file dated 11th November (no year) addressed to Pte Podmore states that "your people in Australia think you were wounded in July or August and have cabled to us, through our Office, to find out and directly hear from you we will cable at allay their anxiety."

- In regards to the death of Pte Podmore a letter which is an extract from the Medical report made out at Sutton Veny Hospital, Wilts reads:
"Pte Jas. Podmore, 3904, 22nd Batn. A.I.F. was admitted to the Military Hospital, Sutton Veny in 24/10/1918 as a severe case of Influenza. Diffuse areas of broncho pneumonia developed & on 30/10/18 the patient was placed on the "seriously ill" list. He gradually got worse becoming more septicaemic & sank & died on 1/11/18, death resulting from Influenza complicated by purulent bronchitis & heart failure." Other letters concerning the death of Pte Podmore dated March, 1919 from Head Sister at Military Hospital Sutton Veny state "there is little I can tell you. This hospital took over from the R.A.M.C. on the 23rd December '18 and the only record to be found here is Pte Podmore's death on the 1st Nov. 1918."
- There are several letters regarding the possible wounding of Pte Podmore – all by fellow Battalion men. Some extracts include – "Pte Podmore belongs to C. Coy.....He is our great rope quoit player. He was still with us this last time up in the trenches."; "The Regt was in action on the 4th August at Pozieres Ridge and I heard Podmore had been slightly wounded. The last time I saw him was with his Coy. in the trenches at Flers on the 6th Nov. and he was quite well then."; "Podmore is in my Company and has never been missing. I know him well." and finally a letter from Pte Podmore himself which reads "...I am away with my Battalion and have never been away from it since I joined up. The report of my being wounded was incorrect I have already informed friends in Australia."

Private James Podmore was buried at 2 pm on 6th November, 1918 in St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny - Grave no. 21. From the burial report of Pte Podmore - Coffin was polished Elm with Brass Mounts – Deceased was buried with full Military Honours. The funeral was preceded by a Firing Party and Band from No. 1 Australian Command Depot. Six of deceased's late Unit comrades supported the Pall. Three Officers and about 100 N.C.O.'s and Men of deceased's late Unit followed the remains to the graveside. Headquarters A.I.F. Depots in United Kingdom were represented at the funeral.

Pte James Podmore requested in his Will dated 22nd May, 1914 that all his real & personal Estate be left to his mother – Emily Little of Carlton, Victoria & for John William Podmore to be appointed Executor of the Will.

Pte James Podmore was entitled to British War Medal & the Victory Medal. A Memorial Scroll & Memorial Plaque were also sent to Pte Podmore's mother – Mrs Emily Little (formerly Podmore) (Scroll sent December, 1921 & Plaque sent November, 1922). A letter was written in October, 1919 by James Podmore, stating to be the father of Pte James Podmore, of 205 Fitzgerald Street, Perth, asking Base Records who was the next of kin of Pte James Podmore & when & where he was buried. It was normal practice for any medals etc to be given to the father of the deceased soldier, however in this case the medals were given to Pte Podmore's mother. No explanation is given in his Service Record file.

The CWGC lists Private James Podmore, 3904, of 22nd Battalion, Australian Infantry, A.I.F., as the son of Emily B. Podmore of 3 Barry St, Brunswick, Victoria and the late James Podmore.

He has earned the crowning glory
Of a soldier and a man.
When the flags are o'er the roadway,
And the troops come marching home;
Oh, God, have pity on the watching ones
Whose loved one will ne'er return.

Pte J. Podmore, Brunswick, 1/11/18 (illness)

(Weekly Times, Vic – Saturday 7 December, 1918)

IN MEMORIAM

On Active Service

PODMORE – In loving memory of my dear son, Private James Podmore, who died at Sutton Veny, England on active service on the 1st November, 1918; also my dear husband William Little, who died on the 19th August, 1921.

My lips cannot speak how I loved him,
My heart cannot tell what to say,
God only knows how I miss him,
As I Battle along life's way.
But his loving voice keeps whispering,
Mother, be brave and true;
At the end of a lane of shadows
I'll be waiting, dear mother, for you.

Inserted by his mother, E. Little.

PODMORE – In loving memory of our dear brother, James Podmore, who died at Sutton Veny, England on the 1st November, 1918.

Though parted from the one we loved,
How sweet 'tis to recall
Those loving deeds, in vain we try
To recollect them all.
But the helping hand and generous heart,
So full of sympathy;
The kindly smiles, the loving ways,
Will a sweet memory be.

Inserted by his brother, John Podmore; sister and brother-in-law, W. and Emily Arroll; sister and brother-in-law, H. and Nina Phillips; sister and brother-in-law, W. and Edith Norman, and niece, May and W. Rodrick.

PODMORE – In loving memory of our dear nephew and cousin, Private James Podmore, 22nd Battalion, died of illness at Sutton Veny, England, 1st November, 1918. Ever remembered.

Inserted by his uncle, auntie and cousin, John King Langdon, Kensington.

The original grave marker for Pte James Podmore in Churchyard at Sutton Veny, Wiltshire.

A letter signed by Mrs Emily Podmore, mother of late Pte James Podmore, dated 2nd January, 1921, was sent to Base Records who forwarded the letter to Australian Graves Services which reads in part: “Re my son’s grave I wish to know if I could have a verse printed on it. I got my son’s grave done with a headstone before my son-in-law, Pte H. Phillips, left England for home. He got it done up. Also I would like the Military Cross on it too as well as the stone that is on it. I think the Cross is an honour that should not have been moved. The Military Cross I mean by that is what the other graves of deceased soldiers have that the grave decorator has taken off, which he has a right to it as well as mine.” Mrs Podmore/Little, Pte Podmore’s mother, had a private headstone erected for her son & was now enquiring as to where the original wooden cross marker went as she wanted in back in position with his new headstone. She was also asking for the Army to engrave an inscription on the headstone she had erected. Australian Graves Services replied to Mrs Podmore in May, 1921 advising her that enquires had been made to the Vicar of the Parish & also to the local Monumentalist as to who was responsible for the removal of the original wooden cross but they had been unable to obtain any definite information from either. Mrs Podmore was also given the name of a Masonry worker from Warminster who had advised that he was prepared to carve a verse on the memorial & his charges were set out in the letter. Mrs Podmore was asked to communicate direct with the stone-mason whose address had been given.
