Base Records wrote to Mr F. Page of Cook's Hill, Newcastle in 1920, enquiring if the parents of the late Sgt S. G. Widdows were still living & if so their address. Otherwise the name & address of his eldest brother and sister was asked for. The information, it was explained, was required in order that the instructions under the "Deceased Soldiers' Estates Act 1918" may be properly complied with when awarding the War Medals issued on the account of the late soldier's service. Mr Page replied stating that he could not give any information regarding Sgt Widdows as his little daughter sent money for tobacco for the soldiers & Sgt Widdows was one to receive a packet & then wrote thanking his daughter & asked her to answer his letter as he was very lonely. The daughter & her parents wrote regularly to Sgt Widdows & they took it that Sgt Widdows had no relations.

Sgt Samuel George Widdows was entitled to 1914/15 Star, British War Medal & the Victory Medal. A Memorial Scroll & Memorial Plaque were also to be sent to Sgt. Widdows' nearest next-of-kin. The War Medals & mementoes were sent to the London Office for them to trace the blood relations of Sgt. Widdows. Records show that the Memorial Scroll & Plaque were sent to Mr W. Ormerod in England (both sent November, 1922).

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Serjeant Samuel George Widdows does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
