

Sutton Veny
1767

To be Lett, and entered upon at Michaelmas next,
At Sutton Veny, near Warminster

A very good Dwelling-Houfe and Malt-Houfe, in which may be made 15 Quarters per Week; with a barn, Stable, and Out-Houfes, and near 40 acres of Arable Land, lying in the common Fields of Sutton Veny, about four Acres of Orchard, planted with the choicest Fruit Trees, and 78 Sheep Leazes on the Downs and Commons

For Particulars enquire of Mr. William Snelgrove, at the Red Lion, at Heytefbury; or Mr. Samuel Long, of Tytherington, in the Parifh of Heytefbury aforesaid.

Source: Salisbury and Winchester Journal 17 August 1767