

CORONERS INQUESTS

Sutton Veny

Isaac Everley

Inquests held by G. Sylvester, Esq., and G. M. Sylvester, Esq. (Deputy Coroner)

At Sutton Veny, on Isaac Everley, aged two years.

The deceased lost his life by the wheels of a wagon, laden with barley, passing over his head and arm; he was discovered lying on the road. The accident was not witnessed by any person.

Verdict, "Accidental death."

Bath Chronicle, Thursday, 8 April 1846