

Sutton Veny

(Wilts) To be Lett,

And entered upon at Lady-Day, 1768

A Dairy-Farm, consisting of a good Dwelling-House,

Dairy-House, and other Houses suitable to a Dairy-Farm;

containing near 240 Acres of Meadow and rich Pasture Lands, well divided with Quickset Hedges, and has good convenient Watering Places.

The Premises are conveniently situate together, and are now in the Occupation of Mr William Sealy, of Dantsey.

For further Particulars enquire of Mr West, of Smathcot, in Dauntsey.

---

To be Lett, and entered upon at Michaelmas next,

At Sutton Veny, near Warminster,

A Very good Dwelling-House and Malt-House, in which may be made 15 Quarters per Week; with a Barn, Stable, and Out-Houses, and near 40 Acres of Arable Land, lying in the common Fields of Sutton Veny, about four Acres of Orchard, planted with the choicest Fruit Trees, and 78 Sheep Leazes on the Downs and Commons.

For Particulars enquire of Mr William Snelgrove, at the Red Lion, at Heytesbury; or Mr Samuel Long, of Tytherington, in the Parish of Heytesbury aforesaid.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – 5 January, 1767)