

Bigamy Charge

Mr. Sage, the individual who held the contract for building the church at Swindon New Town, was taken before the magistrates, at Swindon, on a charge of bigamy, on Saturday.

He has been married to his present wife about twenty years.

It is alleged that a former wife is still living, and that he had by her two children. He was remanded till Thursday next for re-examination, bail having been taken for his appearance.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 19 March 1846