G.W.R. Promotion for Mr. J. R. C. Honey

Mr. J. R. C. Honey who was in the service of the G.W.R. at Swindon from 1902 to 1915, has been appointed the company's District Estate Agent at Cardiff, in succession to Mr. H. W. Taylor, who has retired from that position after 18 years' service.

Mr. Honey entered the G.W.R. service in the Chief Mechanical Engineers Department at Swindon in 1902, and three years later was transferred to the Estate Department at Swindon.

In 1915 he was appointed chief clerk in the district estate office, Bristol, and five years later came to the head office of the department at Paddington as repairs inspector. Mr. Honey's next move was to the Cardiff district estate office in 1922, on appointment there as chief clerk and repairs inspector. This position, he has held for the past 18 years prior to his present appointment.

In the course of qualifying for the Chartered Surveyors' Institution in 1922, Mr. Honey won the bronze medal of the Regent Street (London) Polytechnic, with distinction in valuation.
