

St. George, Garrison Church, Bulford

Wedding of Major Perkins and Miss Gurdon

The marriage took place on Saturday at St. George's Garrison Church, Bulford Camp, Wiltshire, of Major Christopher Edwin Shuttleworth Perkins, The Royal Hampshire Regiment, only son of Colonel and Mrs G. F. Perkins, of Sandhills, Dinton, Wiltshire, and Miss Sheila Florence Gurdon, younger daughter of Major-General and Mrs. E. T. L. Gurdon, of Tilshead House, Wiltshire. The Rev. G. R. Whitcombe, C.F., and the Rev. A. V. Kingston, C.F., officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of pearl-tinted satin in medieval style, with a Brussels lace train, and a tulle veil with a floral head-dress. The bridesmaids – Miss June Morrison, Miss Barbara Scott, Miss Viola Fuller, and Miss Rachel Frampton – wore dresses of pink and blue georgette, with floral head-dresses, and carried bouquets of tulips and irises. Major J. E. Pern was best man.

A reception was held in the Officers' Mess, H.Q., Salisbury Plain District, Bulford.
