

Mr. H. Dyer Sets Off Balloons He Has Manufactured

On the evening of Monday se'nnight two balloons were set off at Trowbridge. One of them measured 21 feet in height and 16 feet in diameter. They both ascended in fine style; and reflected great credit on the manufacturer, Mr. H. Dyer, son of Mr. John Dyer, engineer, of that town.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 8 October 1821