

British Troops carrying an accordion

The Accordion Arrives

The accordion which was subscribed for by a number of Trowbridge people last week, in purposes to an appeal, has arrived, as the letter will prove:-

In the Field,
June 10th. 1915

(To The Editor)

Dear Sir:

It gives me great pleasure in writing these few lines to thank you and the people who so kindly found the money to send us the splendid accordion which we all appreciate very much. I am sure we thank you for taking so much trouble on our behalf. Once again thanking you for all your kindness. I beg to remain, sincerely yours.
