(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 11 November, 1841)

Through the kindness of J. Davis, Esq., and Mr Hart, his tenant, a friendly day's coursing will take place at Fisherton Delamere, on Thursday, the 18th instant, for dogs that have never won a stake above the value of 10 £.- Fisherton Cup, one guinea; Deptford ditto, half-a-guinea; to be drawn at 10 a.m., on the down, before going into the slips. An efficient judge has been appointed, and a substantial dinner will be provided at Deptford Inn after the sport. Mr Raxworthy, of Upton Lovell, and Mr Stephens, of Corton, have kindly consented to act as stewards, and application for entries can be made to them on or before Wednesday next.
