

In The News

Upton Lovell

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT

On Sunday, the 2d inst., as George Carline, upwards of 20 years a most faithful servant to Mr Raxworthy, of Upton Lovell, in this county, was returning home with his master's horse, he was thrown off, within a short distance of his master's house, and killed in the spot.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal - Monday 10th March, 1834)