

Herm Island

“WELCOME ALL” – TO PARADISE

The lessee of Herm - 320 acre island, Paradise, three miles east of Guernsey, purchased by the Guernsey States from the Treasury last July for £15,000 – was disclosed last night as Mr A. G. Jefferies, of Trinity Trees, Upton Lovell, Wilts., middle-aged cattle breeder and retired glove manufacturer.

He intends to develop Herm as a playground. He will live there and will welcome everyone who cares to enjoy the beauty of this lovely island.

(Western Daily Press – Monday 3 March, 1947)