

Sir Peter & Sir Walter Scudamore

The Knight Effigies

The two badly damaged effigies of former cross-legged knights now raised on plinths have been dated by experts as of the late 13th and 14th centuries. The older one at the East end – right - is probably of Sir Peter Scudamore, lord of Upton Scudamore ~ died 1293 ~

The other is thought to be Sir Walter Scudamore, lord of Upton Scudamore ~ died 1362 ~ who fulfilled the promise of his Father to found a Chantry in the Church at Upton

Source: Upton Scudamore St. Mary