

Warminster Baptist Church, North Row

Farewell to the Rev. A. Johnson.

The Rev. A. Johnson, for the past 6 years pastor of the North Row Baptist Church, preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation on Sunday evening. The reverend gentleman 's discourse was founded on the I John ii., and part of the old verse , "It is the last time." Mr. Johnson leaves with the good wishes of his congregation.

Western Gazette, 4 July 1884

Transcriber Note:

The Baptist church was built in 1810, and was originally known as the Ebenezer Chapel. As it was situated back off North Row, it was later known as the North Row Chapel.