

School Cases

William Jones, of the Common, was summoned for the non-compliance of a school attendance order made on 6th June, and was fined 2s. 6d.

William Whatley, of the Common, was mulcted in a like sum for a similar offence.

Edward Daniells, of West Street, was summoned for neglecting to send his child Annie to some elementary school. The child who was eight years old, had never attended an elementary school. The Bench made an order for the parents to send the child regularly to school.

William Trollope, of Boreham, was fined 2s. 6d.

Warminster & Westbury Journal, Saturday, 3 Aug 1889