

CORONERS INQUESTS

Warminster 1800-1899

1872

A sudden death occurred here on Thursday evening. Joseph Parker, aged 73, lodging in North Row, appeared to be in his usual state of health about four o'clock, and about seven o'clock he was found dead in his bedroom. Disease of the heart is the supposed cause of death. Western Gazette, Friday 8 March 1872
