

Sunday School Anniversary

On Whit Sunday was celebrated the 97th anniversary of the Common Close Sunday School, and the services during the day, at which sermons were preached by the Rev. E. Simon, of Bath, were very largely attended. Special hymns were sung by the scholars, and collections made in aid of the school funds. A very satisfactory report was submitted on the working of the school.

Western Gazette, 25 May 1888